COMPETITIVE CONTRACT

PROPOSAL

CARE MANAGEMENT FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH SUBSTANCE USE DISORDERS (SUDs)
WITH COMPREHENSIVE WRAPAROUND SERVICES

NOTICE OF COMPETITIVE CONTRACTING PROPOSAL
CARE MANAGEMENT FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH SUBSTANCE USE DISORDERS WITH COMPREHENSIVE WRAPAROUND SERVICES

INTRODUCTION

Ocean County elected to join the nationwide settlement agreements to resolve all opioid litigation brought by States and local governmental entities against distributors and manufacturers of opioid pharmaceutical products. Ocean County is eligible for a direct share and will receive direct distributions from the applicable National Opioid Litigation Resolution¹. Funds must be used for evidence-based services and programs to remediate the opioid epidemic, listed in Exhibit E of the settlement.

For 2022, Ocean County saw 186 suspected overdose deaths and 748 Naloxone administrations. The high rates of opioid use in Ocean County continue to significantly affect individuals with substance use disorder, families, friends, businesses, and the Ocean County community overall.

The Ocean County Opioid Advisory Council (OCOAC)² was established by the Ocean County Board of Commissioners to comply with the settlement agreement and to direct and oversee its distribution of funds from the settlement. The OCOAC conducted a community needs assessment and developed a strategic plan³ to guide the use of funds for the period of 2023 through 2026. Care Management was one of the priorities for funding identified in the plan to improve access for target populations, through planning, coordination, and implementation of core strategy initiatives.

Care Management for Individuals with Substance Use Disorders (SUDs) includes resource navigation, assessment and care planning, peer support, and comprehensive wraparound supports and recovery services, with a strong family engagement and support component. Aligned with the nationally recognized best practices, Care Management is designed to meet people where they're at, to ensure services are comprehensive, individualized, available when they want them, and to promote harm reduction principles. This Request also incorporates deliverables regarding raising public awareness of substance use disorders and harm reduction tools and strategies, and outreach and education to law enforcement, criminal justice partners, first responders, and healthcare professionals.

SCOPE OF WORK

Care Management is a coordinated, individualized approach that links individuals with appropriate services to address their specific needs and help them achieve their stated goals. Care Management for individuals with SUDs helps them stay in treatment and recovery. By concurrently addressing other needs, it allows participants to focus on SUD treatment. Care Management will assist with navigating the existing continuum of care and various funding streams, and foster continuity of care during transitions between clinical levels and service providers. An important component is support for the family, education about substance use disorders, and information on resources. In accordance with best practices, Care Management should apply a peer model.

Key Values and Principles

Care Management should follow a strengths-based perspective that embraces the following values

1 National Opioids Settlement <https://nationalopioidsettlement.com/>

2 Ocean County Opioid Advisory Council webpage <https://www.co.ocean.nj.us/OC/OCDHS/fmOpioidCouncil.aspx>

3 Ocean County Opioid Advisory Council Strategic Plan – see Council webpage under Files of Interest and principles of care:

Fast Access to Care – Participants should be able to access Care Management quickly when they are motivated for recovery, without experiencing barriers like onerous requests for documentation, lengthy assessment processes, and waiting lists. There should be extended business hours, 24/7 on-call capability, and a walk-in/drop-in component to the program. Likewise, Care Management should be agile and responsive to participants' needs and facilitate services as expeditiously as possible.

Individualized and Consumer Centered - Each participant's right to self-determination should be emphasized. Most paths to recovery are unique and not linear in nature with regard to level of care and supports needed. The care manager should identify each participant's psychosocial stressors and help anticipate the participant's needs. The care manager should help to set reasonable goals and help access the chosen services. The plan of care should be personalized, following a thorough assessment or evaluation, and revisited on a regular basis to respond to participant's evolving needs.

Shared Decision Making - Participants in Care Management should have informed, meaningful, and collaborative discussions with the care manager about the behavioral health care and other services they receive.

Single Point of Contact - The Care Management entity(ies) will assume responsibility for coordinating the care of participants who receive services from multiple agencies. A key component of Care Management will be an extended duration of services, in order to serve as a bridge during transitions between levels of care. Transitions between levels of care are associated with a high risk of relapse. Better outcomes are realized when there are active, warm handoffs from one program to the next discharge recommendation. Care management will serve as a bridge between programs and providers for individuals with SUDs, and help to negotiate school support, compliance with conditions of pretrial release and probation, and other services to support recovery.

Community-based - The Care Management entity(ies) will help the participant access and integrate formalized and informal care services, overcome barriers to services, and to transition between services. Care Management will make warm handoffs or accompany participants as indicated by the individual's needs.

Peer services – Peer services should be embedded into the Care Management entity(ies). Care managers should have lived experience with SUDs and plans of care should consider the need for peer support and family peer support.

Integrated, holistic care – Care Management will take a whole person approach to service planning, addressing not only SUD but also co-occurring mental illness, physical health and medical conditions, and other social and human services. The Care Management entity(ies) will facilitate or provide comprehensive wraparound services such as transportation, housing, childcare, and food assistance. Care Management should involve and support family members and friends of the participant.

Equity driven, culturally sensitive, and non-stigmatizing – Services provided should be sensitive to the individual's race, culture, and native language. The Care Management entity(ies) will have a cultural competence plan. All participants will have equitable opportunities and resources. Interactions with all levels of staff should be supportive, strengths-based, and non-stigmatizing. The successful proposer(s) of Care Management will not solely deliver an abstinence-only model of support and must support participants' option to choose FDA-approved medications for opioid or alcohol use disorder.

Trauma-informed – All staff of the Care Management entity(ies) should be trained in trauma informed approaches to service delivery and trauma interventions as appropriate. Estimates of trauma exposure among individuals with SUD are particularly high, ranging from 50 to 90% depending on the source . Evidence-based trauma-informed care is correlated with improved engagement and outcomes among individuals with SUD.

Key Activities and Deliverables

Care Management will be expected to carry out the following:

Outreach and engagement to individuals referred to Care Management services, potential candidates, and to potential referral sources such as SUD treatment agencies, police, pre-trial monitoring and probation, Psychiatric Emergency Screening, Peer Recovery Program, and so forth.

Community education and public awareness on the availability of treatment, resources, and naloxone; information and education to support law enforcement with resources and naloxone; and education for families on the chronic nature of substance use disorder and family support resources. The community partner(s) operating Care Management will be expected to enhance the visibility of services and resources in the community, provide community education on substance use disorders, and collaborate with police, first responders, healthcare, justice system, and maternal child health partners.

Assessment and treatment planning, which consider all eight dimensions of wellness and social determinants of health.

Access to care. The Care Management entity(ies) will facilitate access to services indicated on each participant's plan of care. The organization may also provide direct clinical services, but participants must be given choice of the treatment provider utilized within the recommended level of care. The Care Management entity(ies) should incorporate harm reduction measures such as distribution of naloxone kits and provision of or linkage to medications for opioid or alcohol use disorders.

Monitoring and follow up to participants, including coordination with other programs and services with which the participant is engaged.

Advocacy on behalf of participants.

Wraparound services that are integral to achieving and maintaining recovery. The Care Management entity(ies) will assist individuals with SUD obtaining required documents, coordinating with the existing workforce development and job training system, and will provide or facilitate housing, transportation, child care, clothing, food, and basic needs.

Family support and psychoeducation. Family support can be provided individually or in groups.

Recovery support and wellness activities for participants and their families.

Data collection and reporting as requested by the Ocean County Opioid Advisory Council (OCOAC). The Care Management entity(ies) will report to the OCOAC.

Anticipated Level of Service

According to the National Survey on Drug Use and Health (NSDUH 2021), 16.5% of people aged 12 or older exhibited a substance use disorder (SUD) in the past year. There may be more than 80,000 residents of Ocean County experiencing an SUD. Two percent (or 5.6 million people) reported an OUD in the past year in response to the NSDUH. In Ocean County, this would equate to about 10,000 residents living with OUD. Around 4,500 adults seek treatment in the publicly funded system of care, about half of whom primarily use heroin and/or other opiates.

Approximately 100 to 125 participants should be served by Care Management at a given time. A 1:10 or 1:15 staff to participant ratio. Individuals with opioid use disorder should be triaged for care management services. No substance use disorder diagnosis should exclude an individual from enrollment, nor should a co-occurring mental illness or chronic medical condition preclude an individual from receiving services.

Eligible Applicants

Eligible applicants must be registered to do business in New Jersey. Applicant organizations who offer any substance use treatment must be appropriately licensed with the State of New Jersey, Department of Health, Office of Certificate of Need and Licensing and/or US Drug Enforcement Agency. Any clinical services must be delivered by practitioners with the appropriate license (e.g. NJ Licensed and Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor, Licensed Professional Counselor, Advance Practice Nurse). Peer services should be delivered by individuals with appropriate training and certification (e.g. Certified Peer Recovery Specialist).

Proposers are prohibited from contacting or discussing this solicitation with members of the Ocean County Opioid Advisory Council (OCOAC) or additional reviewers that may serve on the OCOAC's Proposal Review Committee.
