Ocean County
Youth Services Commission Proposal Review

Appeals Process

- Proposal Review Committee makes a recommendation for awarding of funds.
- Recommendations are presented to the Youth Services Commission.
- On the day following the Youth Services Commission meeting, letters are sent to the agencies NOT being considered for funding. The letters will indicate the date written request for appeal must be filed; the date on which the Appeals Committee will meet and the date on which final decisions on appeals will be announced.
- An appeal of the selection process will be heard only if it is alleged that the Youth Services Commission has violated a statutory or Regulatory provision in the awarding of a grant. An appeal will not be heard based on the challenge to the evaluation of a proposal.
- Agencies have three (3) working days to notify the Youth Services Commission Administrator in writing that they wish to appeal the YSC's decision.
- The Appeals Committee of at least (3) YSC members not on the Proposal Review Committee, will hear the appeal. The chair of the Proposal Review Committee will be present but will not vote. The Commission may also choose to hear the appeal as a "Committee of the Whole."
- Those agencies involved in the appeal or potentially affected by the appeal will be notified and permitted ten (10) minutes each to make a presentation.
- The Committee will either uphold the Proposal Review Committee's recommendation or propose an alternate-funding plan specifying agencies to receive funding adjustments. These recommendations will be presented to the Commission for action unless the Commission acted as a "Committee of the Whole."
- A final recommendation is made to the Board of Commissioners.
